L-W Keeps Record Against Lemont Clear; Wins 27 to 6

Lemont successfully thwarted favored Lincoln-Way from scoring during the first half, then faded to the Knight's following intermission, bowing 27-6. Game marked the season opener for both squads Saturday in a contest at the Lincoln-Way field.

Both teams saw scoring opportunities go up in smoke during the first half as untimely miscues cropped up at key moments.

Following intermission, Lincoln-Way received the kickoff and marched from their own 39-yard line to the goal line. Jeff Urban got the drive underway by moving to the 45 on two carries. Van Delay, unwrapping the deceptive downfield sprinting ability he is fast becoming noted for, dippy-doodled his way to the Lemont 30-yard stripe before being nabbed. The Knights kept banging away, with Van Delay going to the one-yard line on a play that saw him knocked out momentarily. Following a try at the line which went for nothing, Jeff Urban cracked up the middle with the first Lincoln-Way tally. With 7:23 remaining in the third period, a pass to Delay for the extra point went skimming thru his fingers.

Lincoln-Way, warming to the task, kept the ball away from the Lemont club by employing alert line play. Following the after-touchdown-kickoff, Lincoln-Way line men stopped the first two running plays by Lemont without giving up an inch of ground. On the first down play, Lemont's Mickey Trallov was assisted off the field with a leg injury. On the third down play, Lawrence Carlton found his receivers covered and had to be content with a 3-yard loss. Bad luck for the Lemonters again cropped up as Gilbert Freely had to leap to receive the center snap on the fourth down punt situation. Freely, electing to run the ball, was forced out-of-bounds on the Lemont 18-yard line.

Lincoln-Way slammed to the 10-yard line before alert Lemont linemen put the rush on Jeff Urban, stopping him for no gain on a fourth down play.

Lemont took over on their own 10-yard line, then cut Wayne Cummings loose on a 90-yard romp to the goal line. Cummings slanted over the middle, then outraced the Knights' secondary for the first and only Lemont tally. Lincoln-

Way rose up to smother the extra point kick.

A pass interception by Van Delay after both teams had exchanged the ball set up the third Lincoln-Way tally.

After three plays moved the Knights to the 19-yard line, Van Delay took a perfect aerial from Kurt Fredin for the TD.

Lincoln-Way defense continued to baffle the Lemonters' offensive machinery and shortly thereafter set up the fourth Knights' tally.

After Lincoln-Way's Tom Hamilton moved to the 28, Jeff Urban hit off left guard to the 22 for the first down. Kurt Fredin, cooling executing back-field fakery, then cut up the middle to the 9-yard line. Urban moved to the 8, then Van Delay cut across the middle behind well executed blocking for the TD. With 6:25 left on the scoreboard, Urban made it 20-6 with a carry up the middle for the extra point.

With less than a minute remaining in the game, Lincoln-Way rampaged to another TD after taking a Lemont punt on their own 31-yard line. Van Delay latched onto a Frieden aerial from the Lemont 37-yard line for the final Lincoln-Way TD. Tom Hamilton punched over the middle for the extra point with seconds remaining.

TOM HAMILTON appeared to be all by his lonesome before setting sail for yardage against Lemont Saturday afternoon. Moving in Hamilton from the rear was Lemont's Ed, Ahlberg who nailed Hamilton after a 5-yard gain. (Semmler Press Photo)

Says Health Dept. Has Ample Legal Muscle

How strong is the Will county health department? How much legal muscle does it have in enforcing its rules and regulations?

Pretty strong, Village Attorney Albert H. Krusemark advised the Frankfort board of trustees at its meeting Monday where the question came up.

The county health department has state law as well as the county ordinance behind it, Krusemark pointed out, and added that while the department was likely to give recipients of its orders a reasonable length of time to obey, that eventually they must comply.

The county health authorities answer the question themselves in a recent press release.

"It is mandatory," the statement reads, "that all eating and drinking establishments be issued a permit by the Will county department of health authorizing the operation and assuring the public that at least the minimum requirements of the Illinois Sanitary Food law and the Will County Food Establishment ordinance are complied with for their protection."

These minimum requirements include floors that have a smooth surface, easily cleanable and in good repair (wooden floors are out); walls and ceilings also must be constructed of approved material which provides a finished surface that is smooth, washable, impervious, easily cleanable, light in color and in good repair.

Adequate lighting must be provided in areas where food and drink are prepared; cooking units must have exhaust hoods, filters and explosion proof exhaust fans; all outer openings must be protected to eliminate entrance of flies, insects and rodents; proper facilities must be provided for the handling of garbage and rubbish; proper toilet facilities; proper hand-washing facilities; proper and approved facilities for cleansing and washing utensils used in the preparation of food and drink as well as for washing, rinsing and sanitizing all drinking and eating utensils after each usage; proper refrigeration is also man-

These are the minimum requirements.

Norton Blaylock, who with his wife Grace is in the tavern business, appeared before the board Monday night to complain that if he has a comply with the county health officers demand that he cover his present cleanable surface" it will cost a thousand dollars.

"That health man said that those little cracks in the floor are full of bacteria and they have to be covered. We don't serve anything to eat anymore, not even pizza."

He wanted to know if the board would back him up and let him operate in the event he forgot about the flooring and the county health people refused to give them a permit to operate.

The trustees were sympathetic but made no commitment after Village Attorney Krusemark told Blaylock that while he expected that the health department would not press him unduly that eventually he would have to comply.

Krusemark, who happens to be a member of the Will county health board, said that the health department was insisting that eating and drinking establishments comply with the minimum requirements in all sections of the county.

Blaylock said he thought the health officer was rushing him a bit.

"He said I had six days in which to fix the floor," Blaylock said.

The Frankfort board discussed possible change in its insurance set-up if it is possible to get a blanket policy that would cover all the things now covered in the separate policies. The board was to get information on the subject.

Trustee Wayne DePorto reported that under the present system the match company has of billing and shipping Frankfort can expect little benefit thru the collection of its share of the state sales tax. The matches are now shipped and billed out of Chicago. If this was done out of Frankfort the village would reap a tidy sum, DePorto said, and the other trustees agreed that the village could use quite a bit of help in the expense of keeping up the road that serves the match factory. The heavy trucks and the steady daily flow of traffic over this road pounds it apart, it was pointed out.

Trustee Daniel Hecht said there would be a meeting of the park committee Saturday afternoon and that afterwards he expected to have a plan to present the village for installing electricity at the new pavilion erected thru the efforts of the SPC. The village has agreed to install the facilities for power and light. Hecht said he had had one price of $75 but didn't believe that the set-up covered in such a price was adequate for the needs.

An ordinance requiring a $25 deposit at the time application is made for water service was adopted by the board. This covers all applications and is intended as a means to secure payment of water and sewer bills.

The Illinois Municipal League is to hold its annual meeting at Springfield Oct. 20-23 and it is expected that several of the Frankfort board members will attend.

PTG Revives Building Bond Talk in Lincoln-Way Dist.

The Parent Teacher Group of Lincoln-Way high school is preparing to spearhead a move to bring the question of a building bond issue before the public again.

At the regular meeting of the high school board last Thursday, John Porick, of Mokena, president of the PTG, told the members that the PTG executive and area committees at a joint meeting, recommended that the group have a thorough discussion of the possibility of having another bond election.

Mr. Porick said that plans call for circulation of petitions by PTG members urging that another building bond referendum be held. If 2,000 signatures are obtained, he added, it is the request of the group that the school board call another election.

The petition, Porick said, would go farther than to merely ask that the board call an election. It would state that the signers sincerely intend to work and vote for approval of the bonds.

The proposal to issue bonds to build an addition to the school in order to have space for its growing enrollment has come before the voters twice this year and both times it was defeated.

After the second defeat last summer the high school board took the position that if the proposal is again placed before the public the move must be initiated by the voters. There was heavy opposition to the bond issues when they were up previously. The chief opposition then appeared to come from a group that opposed the entry of Lincoln-Way into a proposed Junior College community district. Lincoln-Way would have been the only Will county high school district in the group, the others hailing from Cook county. Most of them, however, were members of the same conference, the Southwest Suburban. The proposal was soundly beaten.

Feeling ran high and opponents appeared to find satisfaction in voting against the bonds on the grounds that their defeat would be a blow to the board of education.

The board endeavored to explain that it had agreed to join the neighboring districts in a junior college referendum that the public might have the final say, after an advisory committee, made up of Lincoln-Way citizens, recommended such a step.

The board's prime concern then and now was that the enrollment had caught up with class space and that more must be added. By 1965 high school enrollment --and what to do with it-- will be a major problem thruout the country, educational authorities declare.

The Lincoln-Way board had hopes of getting approval of the bonds so that some of the needed room would be available by September, 1963. That is impossible now, of course, but if a contract could be awarded early next spring the work could be well under way by next fall.

There are some enormous classes in the school now and this condition will become worse until something is done about expanding the plant, Porick pointed out. That is why the PTG wants action on the bonds soon.

MOKENA'S NEW FIRE CHIEF--Robert Rusf was elected chief of the Mokena volunteer fire department for a one year term at the recent meeting of the members. He is employed by the Cooper-Show Sales of Frankfort. Eric Book was elected a director from the village for a three year term and C.E. Monhart will represent the unincorporated area on the directorate for the same period. Wayne Ryder, of Mokena, was elected to the newly formed board of review. (Semmler Press Photo)

THE REV. AND MRS. ERICH BIZER

Plan Public Farewell For Retired Frankfort Pastor

A farewell in the form of an open house is to be given Sunday, Sept. 23, in St. Peter's United Church of Christ at Frankfort for the Rev. and Mrs. Erich Bizer. All members of the church and the many friends of the couple are invited.

The hours will be from 1 to 4 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening.

The Rev. Mr. Bizer came to Frankfort 19 and a half years ago and under his leadership many things have been accomplished, including the erection of an educational building eight years ago. The membership has shown a steady growth.

This year the Rev. Mr. Bizer decided to retire and so submitted his resignation to the church board several months ago, agreeing, however, to remain until his successor could take over.

The Bizers will reside at Quincy. A son, Robert, night editor of the Herlad Whig, also lives at Quincy. There are two other sons, the Rev. Raymond Bizer, of St. Louis, director of religious education for the Missouri Valley Synod, and the Rev. Arnold Bizer, a pastor at Alhambra, Ill.

Both the Rev. Mr. Bizer and Mrs. Bizer have been active in church and denominational and community circles. After 45 years in the ministry they have decided to ease up on their activities.

Tough new '63 Chevrolet Trucks are here!

...THE ONES THAT WHIPPED THE BAJA RUN...TOUGHEST UNDER THE SUN...
TO SHOW THE WORTH OF NEW ENGINES, FRAMES AND SUSPENSIONS!

Round trip from Detroit to the end of the Baja Peninsula is over 8,000 miles.

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' hah) California Peninsula, Mexico.

These pictures give you only a bare idea of the place. The road is fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the beating begins. Rocks and hard-baked ruts bang, jab and jerk the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them.

The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,066 miles.

All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty.

Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. Come in now and see tough quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements.

Good Move Toward Tax Reform

A giant-stride is currently being made toward relieving Illinois taxpayers of unnecessary tax burden.

Issuance of "Report No. 1" by the Legislative Subcommittee on Economy Measures, a part of the Illinois Revenue Study Committee, released Sunday, points out 41 specific recommendations for reducing unnecessary state spending.

Much has been said for the state's fiscal problems over the years. However, the subcommittee, composed of bi-partisan members, has taken a definite objective view of the problems and assumed the job of recommending point-by-point economy measures which will reverse the spiraling spending trend.

This, so often, is not the case with issues involving national, state or local governments. Many quasi-politicians hasten to condemn a prevailing state of affairs; but fail to come up with concrete, workable solutions; or, indeed, are bold enough to advance suggestions.

In the report, committee members point out "The financial crisis faces us despite the Legislature's passage last year of new taxes with an estimated biennial yield of $278 million. A $150 million surplus—built up during World War II—has been gradually dissipated. State spending has risen from $1.1 billion in 1949-51 to $3.1 billion for 1961-63; the latter figure not including $350 million expenditures authorized in 1960 for state universities and public welfare institutions. Only six years ago, state spending totaled $1.6 billion thus, it has doubled in that short period.

So much for the problem!

Recommendations, based on dollar values arrived at by the subcommittee, would result in reducing state spending by $32 million a biennium. Not included in this figure are those recommendations which carry greater potential for savings, but which cannot be given a specific "dollar value". Examples include revising the formula for state aid to education, further consolidation of school districts, etc., plus many recommendations concerning budget procedures and public aid.

Among suggested economies advanced by the subcommittee are regular reviews of public aid cases, establishing monthly expenditure limits, use of a state purchasing agent, abolishment of Illinois Veterans' Commission, elimination of department of agriculture's "Cottage Cheese Clinics", elimination of awards for breeding thoroughbred horses, abolishment of driver education fund and reduction of the number of capitol guards. A total of 41 are included; this editorial lists only a few.

After going into detail on specific economic measures, the report concludes with the following:

"Some of the recommendations are admittedly the opinions of knowledgeable individuals. Since this is so, they are of course, subject to challenge. In this sense, we do not claim this list is perfect. . . any more than it can be called exhaustive or complete. But we do believe it is a major step in the right direction—specific recommendations in the direction of high economies and huge savings for Illinois taxpayers.

We wholeheartedly agree!

Synonyms For Socialism

"Social progress" or "social reform" or some other pretty sounding phrase, is being used by the misnamed liberals and the do-gooders they have managed to lure into their camp, to describe their aims.

Such phrases are synonyms for socialism, which they would substitute for the form of governments set up in the United States by our constitution.

By devious means they seek to create distrust of private enterprise, the capitalistic system and the profit motive which form the foundation on which our economy rests. Our government itself in the greatest beneficiary from profits thru its tax take.

Krushchev has long boasted that he will destroy our private enterprise system from within, by feeding us socialistic doctrine piece by piece until we have come to accept it in its entirety. Once we are hooked by socialism we are ripe for the take-over by the Communists.

Our fate is up to our people. If they sanction, thru their elected representatives, the continued expansion of government ownership of business and industry, they will set the trap that will ultimately crush their liberties and individual opportunity.

Looking at the world today the handwriting on the wall is as plain as the nose on your face—we will uphold our representative form of government, our profit system, and our individual property rights—or we will go down the socialistic drain along with other subjugated nations.

130 Report For Grid Drills

Two freshman teams, a sophomore squad, and a junior varsity unit will play for Carl Sandburg high school this year as more than 130 youths take advantage of the school policy which offers game competition for everyone who wants it.

More than 60 freshmen reported for the first day of practice last week, and Sandburg's athletic department, headed by Joe Devine, announced that an "A" and a "B" team would be fielded to allow all boys to play.

Sophomores play before the varsity games each Saturday. Coached by Henry Meiers, the sophs have about 44 players in uniform. The junior varsity team will be staffed by varsity players who do not see action Saturdays and by boys normally assigned to the squad. The j.v.'s will play Mondays.

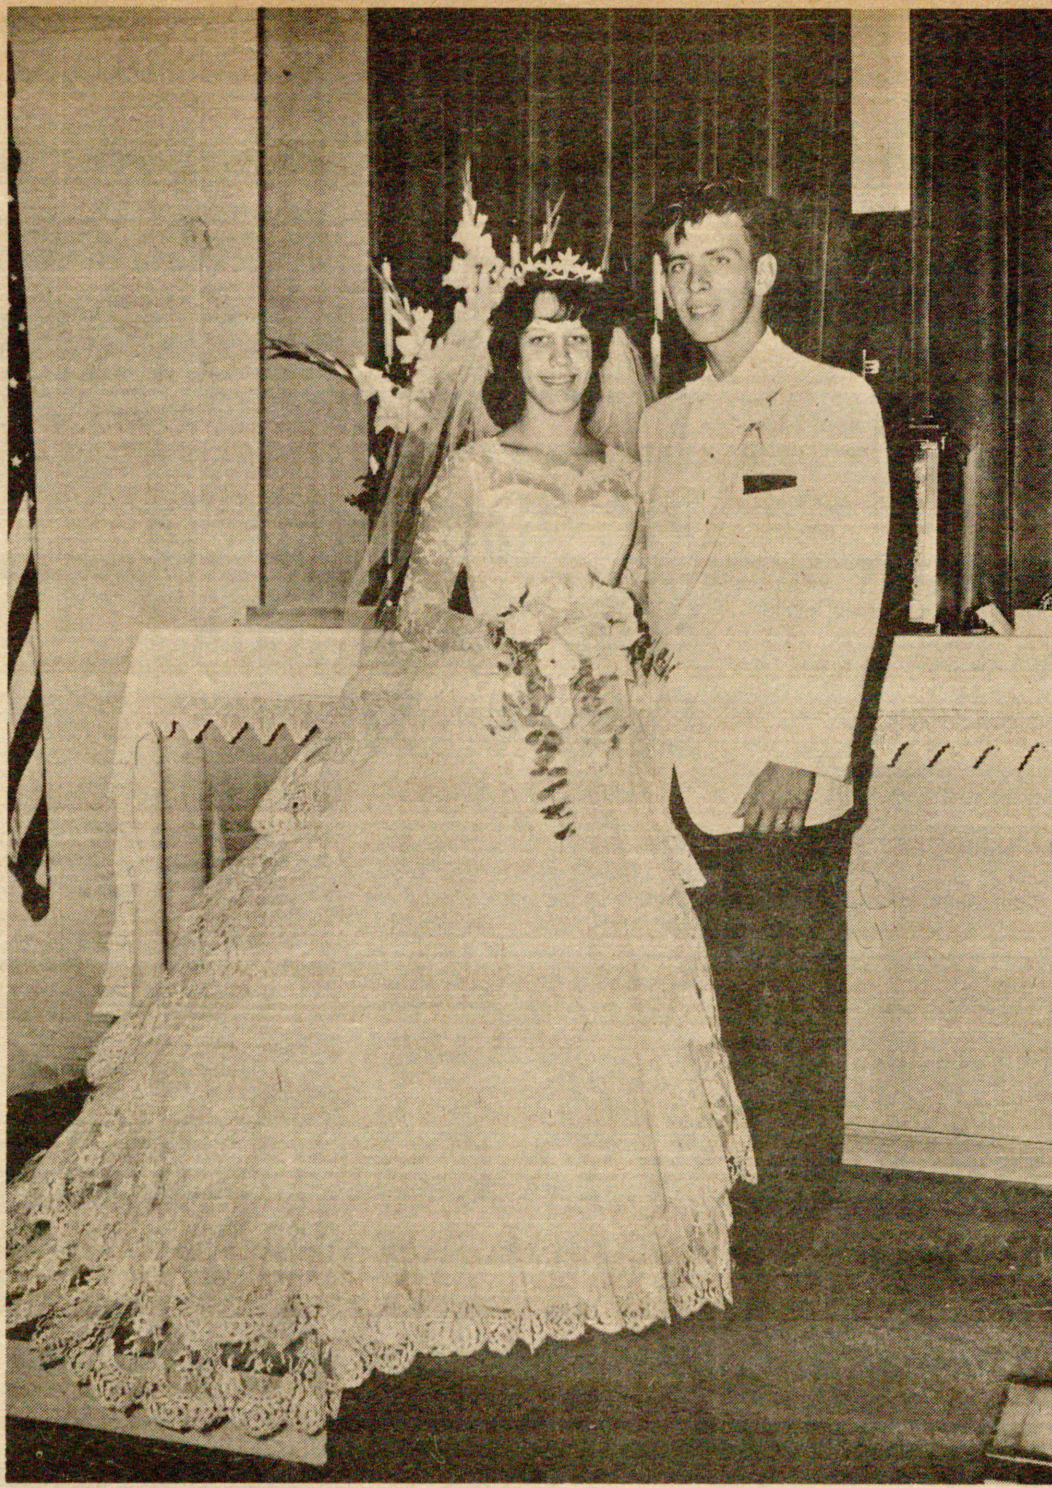

Sandburg policy eliminates cuts for lack of ability. Any student who meets the requirements for participation in high school interscholastic athletics, reports regularly for practice, and follows training rules is allowed to play on a Sandburg team.

All but the freshmen reported for practice in August. Coach Cliff Eade began working with the frosh last week.

Homemaker Tells How To Iron And Still Be Happy

Homemakers can banish "ironing blues" with improved shopping, laundry or ironing practices.

Here are some suggestions from Glenda Pifer, University of Illinois extension equipment specialist:

Buy articles that need little or no ironing. Avoid ruffles and complicated patterns in garments that require ironing. Choose good-quality merchandise, made of good material and with good seam construction. These garments are easier to iron than those that have been cut skimpily or made poorly.

Try to prevent unnecessary wrinkling in articles during laundering. The more wrinkles in clothes, the more time- and energy-consuming ironing will be.

Clothes usually get less wrinkled if they are dryer-dried, even after being spun in the washer cycle, than if they are allowed to drip-dry. Folding articles as you remove them from the line or dryer also helps to prevent unnecessary wrinkling.

Do a good job of dampening clothes. Too much moisture slows up ironing; too little makes wrinkles difficult or impossible to remove.

For most effective dampening, sprinkle clothes with warm water. It penetrates more quickly than cold water. Place dampened articles in a plastic bag or basket liner to prevent loss of moisture. Clothes wrapped in towels lose their moisture and are not evenly dampened. Let clothes stand long enough to distribute the moisture evenly.

Use good ironing equipment. Choose an ironing board that can be adjusted to your standing or sitting height. The padding and cover on the board should be smooth, firm and free from wrinkles. A holder to keep the iron cord out of the way while ironing is a big help.

Assemble equipment before starting to iron. Arrange all items so that they are convenient to reach.

Iron with long, smooth, slow strokes. These motions take less energy than quick, short strokes. Pressure on the iron is unnecessary and fatiguing.

To save time and eliminate extra handling, arrange garments on the ironing board so that you will have maximum ironing surface. Always iron on the grain line of a garment to avoid stretching it out of shape.

Automobile Can Be Safe Port To Ride Out Storm

Unless the rainfall that accompanies a summer electrical storm is so severe as to limit driver visibility, there is no need for a motorist caught driving in the midst of such a storm to stop his car, according to Matthew C. Sielski, director of the Chicago Motor Club's safety and traffic engineering department.

"Even if you are forced to pull over and wait the storm out, one of the safest places to be is right in your car," he pointed out.

Sielski said that since rubber tires insulate a car and keep the current from becoming grounded, there is little danger that lightning can harm the passengers. "Of course, if there is a sturdy building nearby, it is much better to seek shelter there," he added.

If you do decide to pull over and wait out a storm in your car, Sielski offered the following safety tips:

--Don't park under a tree or pole which, if struck by lightning, may fall on top of the car.

--Try, if possible, to avoid parking under overhead power lines strung along the roadside. During severe storms many of these wires are downed.

--Park on high land where water won't accumulate.

--Altho you are safe when you remain in your car, it is impossible to tell whether a downed wire is "live" or "dead." To be on the safe side, simply sit tight and wait, but avoid touching any metal parts inside the car.

--If you have to summon help use a wooden or plastic object to depress your car's horn button or ring.

Children Invited To Enter Poster Contest

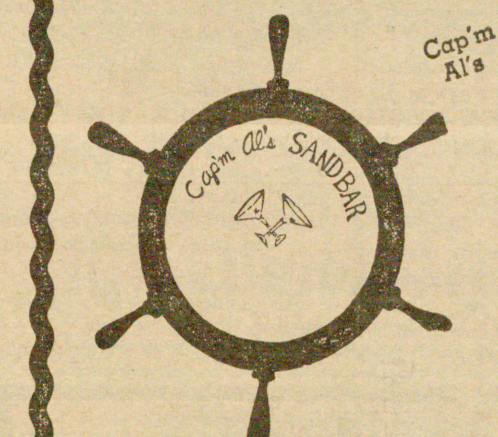

Illinois school children are invited to enter the sixth annual food poster contest sponsored by county Farm Bureaus and the Illinois Agricultural Association.

Competition will be divided into three age classifications; five to eight; nine to 12; and 13 to 19. Walnut plaques will go to county winners in each age classification. Contestants with the next six best posters, in each age group, will receive merit award ribbons.

In addition, each county will select a top winner whose poster will be entered in district competition. District winners will receive another plaque and an expense paid trip to the IAA annual meeting in Chicago, Nov. 12-15. A state winner will be selected from these district winners.

J. L. Pidcock, IAA assistant secretary of marketing and contest coordinator, said that contestants may develop any suitable theme. However, several themes have been suggested for the poster entries: Meal Time is Family Time, Meal Time is a Happy Time, Good Food is Fun, Foods for Fitness, and Foods for Work or Play.

Harriet Bonezek Becomes Bride of Robert Leenerts

Miss Harriet Bonezek and Robert Leenerts exchanged wedding vows Saturday, June 30, at 2 p.m. Rev. Frank M. Coyle performed the double ring ceremony at St. Michael's Church in Orland Park. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip LeFevre of Orland Park and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Leenerts of Quincy, Ill.

Baskets of white mums and a white center aisle runner decorated the church. Escorted by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length white silk organza gown with a chapel train. The rose embroidery around the scooped neckline started again at the waist and graduated into the fullness of the skirt both at the front and back of the gown. The back of the skirt was accented with a large bow which was later taken up into a bustle.

Her finger-tip illusion veil was attached to a princess crown of beaded crystal. Her bouquet consisted of a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and white streamers.

Miss Charlene Stewart, a friend of the bride, acted as maid of honor. Mrs. Karen Bonezek, sister-in-law of the bride, was the bride's matron and Miss Janet Beske was bridesmaid. Miss Sherrie LeFevre, the bride's youngest sister, was flower girl.

The attendants were dressed identically in light aqua nylon sheer street length sheaths with matching over-skirts, scooped necklines and cap sleeves. Their headpieces were small aqua pillbox hats with short blusher veils. All wore silver crosses, gifts of the bride. White wrist gloves and aqua satin shoes completed their outfits. They carried bouquets of pink carnations blended in with aqua chrysanthemums and based on white satin and lace fans.

The flower girl wore a full skirted aqua dress, white shoes and headpiece. She carried a basket of pink rose petals. Johnny Hommerding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hommerding, friends of the family, acted as ring-bearer.

Best man was Bob Hilliard, friend of the groom. Steve Bonezek and Phil LeFevre Jr., brothers of the bride, were ushers. They wore white summer tuxedos with white carnation boutonnieres. The groom wore a boutonniere made from the white stephanotis taken from the bride's bouquet.

The dresses chosen for the occasion by Mrs. LeFevre and Mrs. Leenerts were complemented by white orchid corsages.

A reception and buffet supper was held for 200 guests at the Saenger ballroom in Tinley Park.

The newlyweds spent two weeks in Lake-of-the-20arks after which they returned to Orland Park.

The groom, who is serving in the U.S. Army, left for Korea Aug. 4 where he will remain for 11 months. The new Mrs. Leenerts is staying with her parents and is employed by the Alexander Smith Rug Company in Clearing, Ill.

The Mustang is the classic of all fighter aircraft. It was used by the RAF and U.S. Air Force throughout World War II, because it out-performed all other fighters in speed, range and maneuverability. Its inwards are visible through Monogram Models' version called the Phantom Mustang. Its landing gear, prop, and bombs operate from remote controls on a display pylon.

Arbury Hills

Annual Fun Fair Date Is Set For October 20

Mokena 5740

The Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Group held its first meeting of the new fall term last Thursday evening. This first meeting was well attended, with over sixty people present.

The attendance award was given to Miss Anderson's first grade with approximately seventy-five percent of the parents in attendance at the meeting.

The date for the fun fair was set for Oct. 20. There is a need for donations of cakes, pies, and any "White Elephant" type of salable goods, it was announced. In addition, of course, there is also a need for workers. Those willing to help out in any way, are requested to contact Mrs. Ruth Rognlie at Mokena 5596.

The new committee chairman for this year are: ways and means, Lloyd Klein; membership, Mrs. Jean Hayden; social, Mrs. Alice Chestnut; publicity, Mrs. Ruth Burt; health, Mrs. Louise Doogan; hospitality, Mrs. Ruth Rognlie.

There is still a need for room mothers for this year, and those interested in helping out, are asked to call Mrs. Pat Kronick, at Mokena 5392.

The teachers were introduced to the group, and afterwards H.J. Wrath, the superintendent, gave a short talk on his views of what education means to the children, to the parents, and to the teachers.

The teaching staff for this year is made up of, Miss Anderson, first; Mrs. Hawes, first grade; Mrs. Corp, who was Miss Miller last year, second; Mrs. Schilling, third; Mrs. Gibbs, who taught third last year, now has fourth; Mrs. Gilbert, fifth; Mrs. O'Toole, sixth; Mr. McCarthy, seventh; and Mr. Reeves, eighth.

Refreshments were served following the meeting by Mrs. Gini and Mrs. Cooper. The meeting for the month of October is scheduled for Oct. 11 at 8:00 p.m. in the school.

The Summit Hill school board held a special open meeting to discuss the bond issue and answer any questions pertaining to it.

The meeting was well attended and the answered questions were many. Mr. Wrath, the superintendent of school, was both patient and honest in his answers, and it was decided by all that an excellent choice had been made for head of the school.

The Civic Association held their first meeting of the fall season on the night following the school board meeting. Mr. Wrath was present at this meeting also to answer any questions presented by those persons who had not attended the previous meeting.

At the meeting also it was announced that a clocking device had been purchased by the Civic Association for the use of the two deputies in determining speeders. The deputies are legally authorized to pass out traffic summons for speeders in the area. The speed limit within Arbury Hills is 25 miles per hour.

There was also a request for chaperones and needed support for the teens club. If anyone is willing to act as chaperone for a meeting, he is requested to contact either Al Behnke at Mokena 5412 or Don Waters at Mokena 5031.

There is also a call out for volunteers to work out a Christmas holiday program for the Civic Association to sponsor.

It is regrettable that there will be neither a Girl Scout nor a Brownie Troop at the Summit Hill School at the present time due to the lack of willing workers for the groups. It is impossible for just one mother, no matter how dedicated she may be, to do the work alone.

A vote of appreciation should be given to Mrs. Klein, Mrs. Harrington, and Mrs. Kronick for their unselfish work on the Girl Scout and Brownies last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cook of 9424 West Pine street spent the Labor Day week-end by traveling to visit Jack's brother, Ed and his wife June and their son, Billy, in their home in Twinsburg, Ohio. The Cook's were accompanied by their two children Gwen and Kurt.

They had a week-end of swimming in a private pool and bowling for the last fling of the summer season.

Marie Ann Hovi spent last Saturday at the Brookfield Zoo with the Junior Auxiliary of the Civil War group of which she is a member. The children had a picnic lunch at the Children's Zoo and followed it with watching the porpoise show.

TINLEY PARK - 532-4369
ART SHOW

URBANA--Thirty-one Illinois artists, all amateurs, were awarded blue ribbons at the Town and Country Art Show held at the University of Illinois September 2-8. Their work was selected from 278 entries representing the best from 43 contests held throughout the state.

We are proud to report that a Tinley Park resident, Mrs. Frances Ingram Teehan was one of the blue ribbon recipients, for a pastel painting entitled: "Is, Was, and Will Be."

This seventh annual show is considered to be better than those of previous years, says E. H. Regnier, professor of rural recreation, who is coordinator for the show. In his opinion the quality of the painting is better, the composition is excellent and the framing is better.

Also, this year's show has a wide range of entries. While many of the entries are oil paintings, there are water colors, pen-and-ink sketches and works in charcoal. The crafts division includes collages, mosaics, sculpture and jewelry. Judges for the show were Louise Woodroffe and Charles Saunders of the University art faculty and Walter Johnson, associate professor of architecture.

ARE YOUR CATTLE BETTER THAN AVERAGE?

A summary of about 10,000 weaning-time records of calves grown by Illinois beef cattle producers pointed out that the average steer calf produced by these producers had the following weaning-time record:
214-day weight - 443 lb.
Pounds per day of age - 2.07
Grade - average choice.

How does the average calf in your herd compare with this record? If your herd is on a performance testing program, you know what your animals are doing and, even more important, you know which cows are producing above - average calves and which ones are producing below-average ones. The Illinois Beef Performance Testing Program is simple; it does not take a lot of time, and yet it will help the cowherd owner find his best producing cows.

Even though Illinois has one of the nation's large metropolitan centers, about 30 percent of its labor force works in industries related to agriculture. Illinois ranks first in the number employed in farm machinery, prepared meats, flour and meal, confectionery products and soybean processing.

Nearly 40 percent of the labor force in the United States is employed in producing, processing or distributing food and fiber products and in providing the supplies that farmers need for production.

Using defoliants to cause leaf drop or desiccants for plant drying may also reduce soybean yields, a University of Illinois agronomist cautions.

Mr. & Mrs. Clarence Lauffer Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lauffer, Rt. 2, Tinley Park, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, Sept. 2. A party for 375 relatives and friends was held at the V.F.W. Hall in Mokena.

Dinner was served between the hours of 6:30 and 9 p.m. after which time dancing was enjoyed. Marvin Kollman's polka orchestra furnished the music.

Honored guests for dinner were Rev. and Mrs. William Riemann from Chicago Heights and Rev. and Mrs. Theodore Wimmeler and family from Mokena. Members of the wedding party 25 years ago, Sept. 5, were also honored guests. The Lauffers have five children, Mrs. William (Beverly) Haas, Wayne, who is presently employed at Moss Equipment, Arlene, now attending Western Illinois University, Carol, a junior at Lincoln-Way High School and Joyce, who is in the eighth grade at Summit Hill School.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauffer are active in community, school and church activities.

Teenager's Diet Subject of Study At Sandburg High

The intricacies of a teenager's appetite are the subject of a research project at Carl Sandburg high school this year, and school officials think the result will be an improved cafeteria program.

"We're trying to figure out what induces a student to participate in the school lunch program," explains William O. Fisher, District 230 Superintendent, "so that we can fulfill our capacity. A student participation increase of only a few per cent would allow us to offer better meals."

Sandburg has analyzed the eating habits of its students and has discovered that Monday is the busiest day in the cafeteria. Business in the cafeteria declines steadily on each succeeding day of the week. Last year, for example, an average of 604 students bought their lunches in the cafeteria each Monday, while only an average of 525 students purchased cafeteria lunches each Friday.

Research also has shown that turkey, pizza, and hamburger are the top ranking items on the school menu. When roast turkey is served, the analysis shows, an average of 690 students buy it; pizza draws an average of 642 students; hamburger, 631.

Least popular items on the menu are stew, with an average of 491 customers; ham, with 476; and macaroni and cheese with only 448.

Fisher is eager to determine whether it is the day of the week or the type of food offered which affects cafeteria business.

"We're going to try serving the least popular menus on the most popular days and see what happens," he said. Analysis of the school lunch program was prepared by John F. Jorstad, assistant principal at Sandburg. It shows that in 1961-62 the school spent $82,626.81 on the program and took in $82,360.52.

A total of 261,280 student lunches were served during the school year, representing 39.46 per cent of the total attendance.

Hints For Homeowners

BY: JAMES FIZZELL,
ASSOC. FARM ADVISER

There are many different types of grass which are sold for lawn use. Many of these grasses are quite desirable, and have a use in the lawn, whereas some are unsuited; some are easy to handle, some require almost constant attention.

The most widely planted lawn grasses in this part of the country are Kentucky bluegrass and its variety Merion blue. Kentucky bluegrass is a species which is especially well adapted to this climate, and is often the dominate grass in uncultivated fields. It has a good, dark green color and can easily be identified by its boat-shaped leaf tip. The blue grasses spread by underground rhizomes and thus make a dense sod. A very long-lived perennial, some fields of bluegrass are known to be more than 60 years old.

Bluegrass is primarily a cool weather grass, and in exceptionally hot summers, it may turn brown unless ample water is applied. When properly managed and fertilized, it remains a very attractive green from early spring to very late fall. Merion blue is a superior selection of Kentucky blue. It is darker green, more disease resistant and responds better to fertilizer application.

The fescues are a large group of grasses in which there are many varieties unsuitable for lawns, but a few varieties which are very useful. The desirable fescues are the fine-leaved varieties, two of the most useful being red fescue and chewings fescue. Red fescue is a creeping grass which spreads by underground stems. Chewings fescue is a tufted or bunch type grass and does not creep. Both the fescues have a bright green color, and are hardy, robust plants. They are especially well adapted to dry, shady places in the lawn.

Some of the tall coarse fescues are being incorporated by seedsmen into inexpensive lawn seed mixtures. These grasses are not desirable in lawns as they are very coarse, do not make a good turf, and are very hard to mow.

Perennial rye grass is often sown in new lawns and incorporated in grass seed mixtures because of its ability to produce a turf quickly. Rye grass has a tough stiff leaf, which makes it hard to mow. It is a coarse grass and does not give a good turf in the summer months. For these reasons it is not usually considered desirable for permanent lawns.

Another grass used as a nurse grass is redtop. Redtop has an outstanding ability to grow under a variety of conditions. It is one of the best wet-land grasses, but also resists drought, and will grow on soils so low in lime that other grasses fail. It is ideal for use in lawn mixtures where quick establishment is desired because it germinates rapidly and does not offer extreme competition to slower growing, more permanent grasses.

The fine bentgrasses, Colonial, creeping and velvet, are the grasses commonly used for golf greens. The heavy turf and close cutting needed to produce the carpet-like effect make lawns of bent very susceptible to diseases.

It is necessary to cut pure stands of bent as often as four times a week to maintain the lawn, and the fertilizer and watering and other maintenance practices can be quite time consuming.

Bentgrasses often find their way into bluegrass lawns where they are usually considered undesirable because of the difference in color and straggly growth at the cutting height used for bluegrass.

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND

There is considerable difference of opinion as to the course of business in the immediate future. Opinions expressed by leaders in business and finance on the state of business, is that we are experiencing a comparatively small slowing down in activity.

Conservative investment opinion is suggesting that investors confine purchases, at this time, to the group known as "defensive" and non-cyclical situations for the time being. At the moment, it is fairly easy to secure about five percent return in what are usually thought to be better grade situations.

The news carries a large amount of comment from many sources, as to the gold situation, balance of payments, devaluation possibilities, etc.

Those who have been associated with the financial community for some time, are aware of definite periods when most comment seems to follow a popular trend or style. Superficial facts and events are oftentimes importance considerably greater than warranted.

Leading financial journals of the western world have been pointing that a number of countries use "dollars" as their reserve and any devaluation would disturb international use of dollars in settlement of trade balances.

The U. S. News & World Reports carries an article covering comments of world bankers of Paris, London, Bonn, and Zurich. The article notes that attacks on the dollar appear wide spread and below are condensation of expressed opinions of leaders in countries noted.

Dollar is strong and the U.S.A. is selling more goods and services in international trade than we are buying. This indicates ability to compete in world trade.

Western European firms are hard pressed for trained labor and, as a result, are bidding up for the available labor supply. Unions are demanding increases. This was an expected development.

We have lost more than $6 billion in gold in recent years, but present holdings are much greater than holdings of any other western nation. In addition American assets in foreign lands is far greater than any claims owed to foreigners. Bankers of the western world express belief the U. S. financial strength is very great.

Dr. Max Ikle, Swiss banker and world authority on money and banking, pointed out that 1959 was the only year in which the U.S. had a trade deficit. He remarked that the U.S. trade problem arose from heavy capital investment by American firms which actually is an increase in assets and not a loss of wealth.

Dr. Ikle described this country as the strongest financial power in the world. He also noted that there has been no lack of liquidity in the western world and no trouble in settlement of trade balances.

Dr. Ikle stated that other countries besides the U.S.A., might allow their currencies to be converted into gold at the request of central banks. This would lift any pressures from the dollar.

READ ROMANS 15:1-7
Whatever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

(Romans 15:4.)
An inexperienced hunter in Alaska had been advised to carry a compass, and he did. But he became lost anyway. When he was rescued, half dead from exposure, he was asked, "How could you get lost when you had a compass?" He replied, "It was not until I became lost that I realized that I did not know how to read the compass."

The Bible is a guide for our lives, and we cannot begin too soon to become familiar with it. It will not fail to give us

BLUE SHIELD

Join-Up Time

You hope you'll never be seriously sick or have an accident . . . but these things do happen every day to a lot of people. If you were hurt in an auto accident on the way to work . . . if someone in your family fell down stairs and broke a hip . . . where would you get the money to pay the bills.

Remember . . . Blue Cross and Blue Shield are the only plans sponsored by hospitals and doctors to help make it easy for you to pay your hospital and doctor bills.

Right now there are two ways you can join these two plans. First, if you work for one of the 16,000 firms in Illinois . . . which sponsor Blue Cross and Blue Shield . . . join where you work. Or if you're under 65 and in good health . . . you can join our Non-Group plan. If you're over 65 ask about the special Senior Citizen Plan. So if you don't have Blue Cross-Blue Shield . . . be sure to join before this special offer ends on October 10th. Be sure to get an application from your nearest hospital or Blue Cross office and mail it before October 10th.

IGA's SURE CURE FOR STAMP SAVERS BLUES

STAMP STORAGE AMNESIA

Symptoms—Stamp storage amnesia is a complaint common to stamp savers who store stamps in a variety of places and are unable to find them. A sure symptom of stamp storage amnesia is the presence of stamps in such places as the stamp saver's car, her medicine chest, the end table, under sofa cushions, and, of course, in her purse!

Cause—Stamp storage amnesia is closely related to stamp lickler's lockjaw. A stamp saver, fearing stamp lickler's lockjaw, will place her stamps in nooks and crannies all over the house.

Remedy—It's recommended that people suffering from stamp storage amnesia should shop at IGA, where stamps aren't given. With the absence of stamps, stamp storage amnesia disappears and is replaced by happiness pangs induced by IGA's exceptionally low prices and cash savings received with every purchase.
